START YOUR RECOVERY JOURNEY HERE

At Briarwood Detox Center, we help adult men and women end their physical dependence on addictive substances with individualized detox programs for all addictive substances.

We will support you as long as it takes to ensure that you're stable and prepared to move on to the next phase of your recovery journey. Our staff will even coordinate with the addiction treatment center you choose to ensure you're prepared to enter rehab upon the completion of detox.

By focusing on your journey after detox, we'll give you the best chance at a successful and lasting recovery.

OUR COMMITMENT

Your comfort and safety are our first priority.

Our goal is to help you reach a stable state, so you are both physically and mentally prepared to participate in the next stage of recovery.

The substance abuse detox programs here are based on proven addiction treatment methods, including strategies and principles that encourage quality of life.

At Briarwood, our commitment to you is always high-quality drug and alcohol detox treatment, a safe, comfortable facility, and trusted, experienced professionals.
